'Not Just Playing'

'Not Just Playing' is Robert Williams' new project that examines the dynamics and constraints of child development. Over 30 new mosaics have been created to explore, for example, love, dance, esteem, family, play, movement, flux, tenderness, tekkers, belonging and connectedness.

At the same time, this project involves further development of Robert's visual language through experimentation with recycled, painted and stained glass to create innovative, modern, compassionate, expressive and conceptually rigorous mosaics. (50% of profits from Robert's sales will be donated to local Children's Centres)

Stories, memories and daydreams

For artist printmaker Gary Williams every image, whether real or imagined, has a story. His narrative around it may not be the same as yours but that's fine as everyone engages with an image in their own way.

Gary's limited-edition prints are based on his observations in sketch books, memories, snippets of poetry, music or simply day dreaming.

The work includes hand pulled monochrome and colour wood engraving, lino, drypoint and collagraph prints.
